BUDFOY CONVOYS MONGOLIA

Midway, Sept. 23, 9:45 p. m.—The Mongolia sailed for Honolulu at 6 o'clock this afternoon under her own steam. She is accompanied by the transport Buford.

The Buford has the Mongolia's mails and passengers aboard. The ships will keep together during the voyage.

The passengers left in good health and spirits. They say they enjoyed the picnic on Midway.

INTERVENTION IMPOSSIBLE

Havana, Sept. 22.—Indications are that a solution of the Cuban difficulty will be reached without intervention, on the basis of retaining Palma in the presidency and ordering new elections.

Fifteen hundred American marines have landed.

INTERVENTION PROBABLE

London, September 22.—American intervention in Cuba is regarded as certain.

COMES TO STAY

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, in a speech made here last night, declared that if the flag is raised in Cuba it will remain there.

Four aliens were admitted to American citizenship this morning by Judge Dole in the Federal Court and a large number of applications were filed with the Clerk of Court Hatch. The four who were admitted this morning were Henry D. P. Meyer, of Germany, W. H. Schilling, of Germany, Giovanni Antonelli, of Italy, and Edward Fernandez, of Portugal. John D. Andrade, of Portugal, was refused citizenship papers by Judge Dole on account of the fact that he did not seem able to explain his reason for wishing to obtain a franchise. He will probably make a second attempt later.

MAUI'S POLITICAL STIR

CANDIDATES GETTING OUT TO ENTUSE THE VOTERS

[Special to the Bulletin]

Walluku, Maui, Sept. 22.—The political game is warming up on Maui now. Campaign Manager S. E. Kalama, with candidates W. J. Coello, Phillip Pail, J. Nakaleka, J. Kalua, and A. J. Gomes, opened the campaign for the Republicans at Hamakuaoko last Wednesday night. Kalama was to start out last Monday, but waited until Wednesday, expecting Delegate Kahalaia to arrive from Honolulu. Kalama will hold forth at Hana tonight. The County officers—County Attorney D. H. Case, Auditor Chas. Wilcox, Treasurer L. M. Baldwin, and Sheriff W. E. Saffery—start out this morning for Molokai. They will embark the steamer Lakelike at Lahaina this afternoon and will get off at Kaunakakai this evening, when and where they will stir up enough of the Kaunakakai red dirt to make the denizens of that place feel their presence, to say nothing of the importance of their mission. After their return from Hana's domains, they will stomp every village and hamlet on Maui, following the wake of Judge Kalua, who is out red-hot for votes.

J. M. Vilvas has announced himself as an independent candidate for the office of Attorney of this County. The Home Rulers have not publicly endorsed him yet, but even if the Home Rulers and Democrats have not the manhood to openly endorse him as their only available candidate, he expects to get their votes. Sam Decker of Honolulu, and now of Walluku, has been offered the Clerkship by the Home Rulers, but after considering the matter for two weeks, Mr. Decker, it is understood, prefers to remain as simple plantation luna rather than become a ruling politician.

The Republican Precinct Executive Committee of Hana District has recommended Levi Joseph as candidate for Representative in place of Policeman J. Kanamu Kapiol. Levi is a son of the old Republican Hana war-horse Josepa.

Steamship Line

IS STILL

Hanging Fire

Captain Burnham, of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, sailed today on the Sonoma for San Francisco, en route for New York. Captain Burnham has been in Honolulu for the past three weeks looking over the situation regarding the establishment of a steamship line between this place and San Francisco. He said this morning that he did not care to make any statement for publication, as the matter was still hanging fire and there has been nothing definite decided in regard to it. "I cannot say," he stated, "that any such line will be established. Neither will I say that it will not be. There is at least a prospect, but matters stand now just about as they did when I came down here. So far as this end of the line is concerned, everything is favorable. But the question will have to be decided in New York. I find the people of Honolulu very desirous of having the line
